SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY TOPICS

PATRIOTISM: love and loyal or zealous support of one’s country

-- Webster’s New World Dictionary

Each of these people was a famous, productive American. They exhibited their patriotism in different ways. Choose one as the subject of the essay for your scholarship entry. Be sure your essay addresses all of these questions:

1. What role did your subject play in the history of our nation?
2. Give specific example(s) of this person’s actions that had an impact on our nation.
3. Give specific example(s) of this person’s actions and how those actions have an impact on our lives today.
4. What makes this person a patriot? Be specific, using the above dictionary definition to help you understand the meaning of patriotism.
5. Can this person be considered a role model for people today?

Choose one subject. Use the listed websites as your reference material:

CRISPUS ATTUCKS – Crispus Attucks has been immortalized as the first casualty of the American Revolutionary War and the first African-American hero. He was the first person shot and killed in the historic event that became known as The Boston Massacre. He represents 5,000 African-American soldiers who fought for independence.
