

Dr. James Trippi Scholarship

$1,000 Award

TO APPLY, VISIT

<http://www.martin.edu/financial-aid> or the Financial Aid office for an application.

Application deadline is

Saturday, May 6, 2017.

Submit your completed application to Doraine Reynolds-Malone in the Office of Academic Affairs or by e-mail to dmalone@martin.edu.

The award will be made for the 2017 Fall Semester.

For additional information, contact Doraine Reynolds-Malone, at 317.543.4890 or dmalone@martin.edu

Who's Eligible?

Martin University Junior and Senior Undergraduate Students

Application Deadline

Saturday, May 6, 2017

Dr. James Trippi is an Indianapolis-based cardiologist who founded the Gennesaret Free Clinic. He is passionate about serving others, particularly those who may be at a disadvantage. Dr. Trippi has graciously established an annual $1,000 scholarship at Martin University to be awarded to an eligible junior or senior undergraduate student. The current award is for the 2017 Fall Semester.

Topic: Importance of education for you and your community

See Essay requirements for ALL scholarships located on FA webpage under scholarships.

Eligibility requirements include:

- Junior or Senior class standing (61+ earned credit hours)
- Minimum overall GPA of 3.0 or higher
- In good standing at the University
- Community service involvement
- Completed the FAFSA

Completed applications will be reviewed by an award committee.