Sunny Heights Families!

The 2nd Quarter has begun as we return from our fist intercession of the year. Staff and students at Sunny Heights have had a great first week. We have been focusing on Routines, Expectations, and Procedures in classes all week. Students have completed lessons each day on specific aspects of CORE set throughout the building. Civility, Order, Respect, and Excellence continue to be the foundation on which student and staff success is built. Please speak with your students about the lessons that they are learning and how those skills and behaviors can help them be successful at school and at home. Our goal is for each student to show academic and social growth throughout the school year. Please let us know of any other way we can support your child.

Your Very Proud Principal,

Mr. Lewis

HOME & SCHOOL CONNECTION

Secrets to better behavior

You know what they say: An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. That's true when it comes to effective discipline, too. Try these ideas for heading off problems, and then sit back and enjoy a more pleasant household.

Notice triggers

Being aware of what causes misbehavior goes a long way toward preventing it. Perhaps your youngster acts out when he's tired – make sure he's getting 9 – 11 hours of sleep. Or maybe he misbehaves when he's bored. Let him write a list of activities for when there's "nothing to do" (examples: play solitaire, finger paint, do crossword puzzles).

Offer choices

Give your child some control in situations where he struggles to behave. Does he typically grumble or whine while you're running errands? Consider letting him pick the order in which to do them ("We need to go to the Laundromat and the store. Which should we do first?") Is it hard to get him to dress up for family events? He might like to choose the color of his shirt or pick out a pair of fun socks to wear.

Be a coach

Coaches demonstrate, encourage, and celebrate. Why not use this approach for behavior you want your youngster to change? If he should be putting dirty clothes in his hamper, for instance, "coach" him on tossing in his T-shirts. He'll see that it's more fun to "make a basket" than to drop clothes on the floor. When you find his floor free of dirty clothes the next time, give him a high five.
