

emerging business

Right from the start.

Katz, Sapper & Miller's Emerging Business Group focuses expressly on helping entrepreneurial companies like yours – start-ups, franchises, and other growing businesses – get started in the right direction. And we are dedicated to being here for you throughout the life of your business, with timely and expert advice that always keeps pace with your changing needs.

Regardless of how large your company becomes, it will never outgrow our full range of services. We have in-house experts in state and local tax incentives as well as access to a network of financing alternatives that we can tap for you.

Additionally, our depth and breadth of knowledge in accounting, tax services, technology, and other areas of business and finance give you the resources you require to make the right decisions, right when you need to make them.

OUR SERVICES INCLUDE:

Financial statement preparation and advice

Tax planning, tax return preparation, and compliance

State and local tax incentives

Forecasting and budgeting

Establishment of accounting systems and flash reports

New practice start-ups

Key contract review (e.g., buy/sell agreements, employee contracts, and incentives)

Strategic planning and preparation of business plans

Choice of tax entity and capital structure

Financing assistance

Business succession planning

Mergers and acquisitions

Valuations

Employee benefit plans selection

Cost segregation studies

Over the years, KSM has helped hundreds of companies grow from ideas in the minds of people to successful, profitable businesses. We understand the challenges emerging businesses face, and we understand that what they require is patience, understanding, continuity, and attention. These are exactly the things you can expect from our Emerging Business Group.