PROFILE

Troy Hogan is a director in Katz, Sapper & Miller's Business Advisory Group and a member of the firm's Transportation Services Group.

Troy advises clients in a wide variety of accounting, tax, and business matters and consults with clients to manage business issues specific to the transportation industry. He uses his extensive experience in tax planning and structuring, tax compliance, financial statement analysis, and representation and advocacy before the IRS to help clients find solutions for concerns including per diem, fuel tax credits, and entity restructuring.

EDUCATION

Troy received both a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and a Master of Accountancy degree from Manchester College.

ASSOCIATIONS AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Troy is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the Indiana CPA Society. He currently serves on the board and finance committee of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Indiana and previously served as treasurer of the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce. He is also an active member of various state trucking associations, including the Arkansas, Illinois, and North Carolina trucking associations.
