Building value.

Katz, Sapper & Miller has worked side by side with construction companies for decades. We know firsthand the risky nature of the business and its unique tax issues. We are on the job, on-site, and in the office, always looking for ways to help you cut costs and increase productivity. More importantly, we speak your language. We understand the challenges you face every day and can help find solutions that really work for you.

We have dedicated significant resources and have made a major investment in people to serve your industry. Our professionals offer both years of experience and continuing involvement in industry and professional associations, such as the Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) and the Construction Industry CPAs/Consultants Association (CICPAC).

That kind of in-depth knowledge and experience means KSM offers a distinct edge to our construction clients by helping avoid obstacles and meet the challenges of this industry more effectively.
