PROFILE

Karen Hill is director of talent acquisition and staffing with Katz, Sapper & Miller. She has been with the firm since 1993. In her role, Karen leads all campus and experienced hire efforts. Her responsibilities include understanding firm needs and market dynamics; setting strategies; developing key relationships with faculty, staff, and students; and screening for the best and brightest applicants. Karen is recognized as a collaborative leader who is adept at engaging many across the firm in our recruiting and hiring processes. She resides in Carmel with her husband and two dogs.

ASSOCIATIONS AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Karen is a member of the Human Resource Association of Central Indiana, the American Institute of CPAs, the Indiana CPA Society, and Toastmasters International. She serves on several committees and boards, including Indiana University's Kelley School of Business Career Services Advisory Board, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis' Kelley School of Business Career Services Advisory Board, and the Alzheimer's Association. Additionally, Karen is actively involved with Girls, Inc. of Greater Indianapolis and the Organization of Competitive Bodybuilders, in addition to the Komen Tissue Bank, where she serves as a volunteer.
