PROFILE

Beth Scott is a director in Katz, Sapper & Miller's Business Advisory and Veterinary Services Groups. She has been with the firm since 2004. Beth advises clients in accounting, tax, and business matters and has extensive experience in tax planning, tax compliance, financial statement analysis, forecasts and projections, accounting systems implementation, and key performance indicator reports.

As a member of the Veterinary Services Group, Beth provides hospitals with benchmark and profit-enhancement consulting to help increase their profit and practice values. In addition to the day-to-day management of one of the largest national veterinary benchmarking databases, Beth actively participates in speaking engagements and industry membership groups.

Beth was instrumental in working with the American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA) and Veterinary Management Group (VMG) to combine their chart of accounts that was subsequently released to the veterinary industry in June of 2017.

EDUCATION

Beth graduated with high distinction and honors from the Indiana University Kelley School of Business - Indianapolis, where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting and finance.

ASSOCIATIONS AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Beth is a member of the American Institute of CPAs. She is also a member of OneZone, Veterinary Hospital Managers Association, and Veterinary Procedural Terminology Council (VPTC) for the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA). She has previously served as a committee member of OneZone's Young Professionals Group, treasurer of the Carmel United Soccer Club, treasurer of the Westfield Youth Soccer Association, and treasurer of Rotary Community Corps.
