

VEHICLE HISTORY REPORT DISCLAIMER

As a customer service we have provided you, or you have requested, a vehicle history report from an independent third party service _____(insert name e.g. “Carfax”) to assist you in your purchase evaluation. We want you to know that this report is furnished by the independent third party named above and not this dealership. This dealership has nothing to do with the preparation and contents of this report. Therefore, this dealership cannot be responsible for and disclaims any warranty of or responsibility for the contents of the report. We do not know the accuracy of the contents of this report and make no representations or warranties of the report’s truth or accuracy. No responsibilities assumed by dealer for any errors, inaccuracies or omissions that may be in the report. The report is provided as a courtesy only. Any questions about this report or claims that the report is inaccurate should be addressed to the provider of the report. While we hope that this report is of use to you in making your purchase decision we have nothing to do with the generation or contents of the report except to request it from the third party vendor. Please acknowledge receiving a copy of the report and this notice by signing below.
