ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE: DOC FEE COMPLAINT INVESTIGATIONS LIMITED TO THOSE EXCEEDING $200

Monday, November 9, 2015

After many meetings and discussions between regulators, association officials and dealers over the last year regarding dealer documentation fees, the State has finally reached a decision. Today, the Attorney General's Office advised ADA I Executive Vice President Marty Murphy that their office intends to limit their investigative resources on documentation fee complaints to those instances where more than $200 was charged as a documentation fee. This change is effective immediately.

A special thank-you to ADA I board member and Secretary Chris Coyle of Coyle Chevrolet, Inc. – Clarksville for his tireless efforts on this issue. Chris helped prepare statistics and attended several meetings to make the case for dealers.
